COIN SEASON IS HERE!

The time between mid-September and mid-April is known as the coin season, when temperatures are a bit cooler and collectors start spending more time indoors with their collections. Coin season is often accompanied by higher coin prices as latent demand surfaces. Now is a great time to add to your holdings.

KEY DATE TWENTIETH CENTURY BARBER HALVES

Nice Good or Better

We've seen a growing interest in Barber coin collecting, so if you have an interest in Barber halves, take advantage of this offer on these low mintage keys. If these were Lincoln cents— they'd be priced in the thousands!

COPPER CENT BAGS

Original Brilliant Uncirculated

Each of these bags is filled with coins dated before 1982—so you are assured they'll contain only original coper cents and not the copper coated zinc cents that are currently being produced. With copper trending near an all-time-high, these bags offer an interesting speculation on the copper price along with some original full red Lincoln cents.

FUNNY BACKS

Very Good or Better

These small size, series 1928 notes look pretty similar to today's notes on the front but on the backs show a large ONE and an intricate design. Because of this they are nicknamed "funnybacks". Entertain your friends for they've probably never seen one.
